Mss. No.: 157

The Atlanta Rabbinical Assembly, founded sometime prior to 1970, is comprised of rabbis who represent the full spectrum of organized religious expression in the Atlanta area. Membership is open to and includes colleagues, both active and retired, from all sectors of the Jewish community: members serve in congregational as well as non-congregational settings.

The ARA Records, 1970-86 are arranged in chronological order and contain officer and membership lists, meeting agendas and minutes that reflect critical issues that have come before the organized Jewish community of Atlanta.
