[70] R. Johanan says in the name of R. Jose: How do we know that the Holy One, blessed be He, says prayers? Because it says: Even then will I bring to My holy mountain and make them joyful in My house of prayer (Psalm)? It is not said, 'their prayer', but 'My prayer'; hence you learn that the Holy One, blessed be He, says prayers. What does He pray? R. Shija b. Tobi said in the name of Rab: 'May it be My will that My mercy may suppress My anger, and that My mercy may prevail over My [other] attributes, so that I may deal with My children in the attribute of mercy and, on their behalf, stop short of the limit of strict justice.' It was taught: R. Ishmael b. Elisha says: I once entered into the innermost part [of the Sanctuary] to offer incense and saw Akathriel Jah, the Lord of Hosts, seated upon a high and exalted throne. He said to me: Ishmael, My son, bless Me! I replied: May it be Thy will that Thy mercy may suppress Thy anger and Thy mercy may prevail over Thy other attributes, so that Thou mayest deal with Thy children according to the attribute of mercy and mayest, on their behalf, stop short of the limit of strict justice! And He nodded to me with His head. Here we learn [incidentally] that the blessing of an ordinary man must not be considered lightly in your eyes.

The priest gives a blessing, like turning around and giving back to B the prayer that B asks for. If we are not the only ones standing in judgment B turns to the people and asks for people's judgment. B needs the people. A relationship. A Partnership.

The blessing of a person makes a difference. The covenant/partnership. From his responsibility /power /capacity /strength.

Theodicy - God's justice.

MEMBERS PRESENT: CLAIR D’AGOSTINO, MILTON CRANE, BUNNIE LOVITKY, BERNIE LOVITKY, JOANNE BARRINGTON, PAM HOWELL, SHELLEY MORTON, JACKIE METZEL AND RON ROSEN.

The schedule for the day was discussed. Registration will be from 8:30 to 9:30 A.M. The first work session consisting of the keynote speech will be from 9:30 - 11:00 A.M. The first Rabbi’s workshop will be from 11:15 A.M. - 12:15 P.M. Lunch will be from 12:15 P.M. - 1:00 P.M. The second workshop will be from 1:10 P.M. - 2:00 P.M. The wrap-up session will be from 2:10 P.M. - 2:30 P.M.

CLAIR D’AGOSTINO: Flyers will be sent to all previous attendees and to all Temples. Flyers will be designed by Arnie Katinsky. They will be mailed by Joanne Barrington. Claire will send information to both the Atlanta Jewish Times and the Jewish Georgian. The plan is to have an article about the conference in the Jewish Times, and the following week to have a registration form in the Jewish Times. The deadline for registration will be Monday, March 15.

Paulette Lovitz was absent but she had given me this information prior to the meeting. At the time of the meeting, the following Rabbis had agreed to do workshops: Rabbi James Cohn from Temple Israel in South Carolina, Rabbi Alvin Sugarman, Rabbi Uri Goren from Macon, Rabbi Gerson from Athens, Rabbi Frank Sundheim from the UAHC, Rabbi Brett Isserow from The Temple, Rabbi Fred Raskind, Rabbi Harvey Winokur, and Rabbi Jeff Lazar would do the afternoon session only. Several Rabbis were unable to attend the conference. The following Rabbis had not had a follow up contact: Rabbi Stanley Davids, Rabbi Richard Baroff, Rabbi Fred Davidow, and Rabbi Bill Rothchild.

Paulette stated that her neighbor would be able to print 350 programs at a cost of $165.00. Paulette felt that this would save her much time by having him do the typesetting as well as the printing. The programs would have to be proofread and completed one week prior to the conference.

REGISTRATION (SHELLEY MORTON) It was felt that at least six people would be needed to work in registration. The teachers would be registered separately in the youth lounge. The other attendees would be registered in the lobby. Four volunteers would be needed in the lobby and two in the youth lounge. There will be different color coded name tags. Four different colors will be used. The teachers, attendees, Rabbis, and Moderators will all have different name tags. The pre-registered list will be given to each of the workers. Each of the attendees will be given a program, a diagram of the building, and a name tag. Joanne will have the diagram supplied prior to the conference. Each member of the Committee is strongly encouraged to arrive at The Temple at 8:00 A.M. in order to help out in any way needed.

The Committee felt that walk ins on the morning of the conference who were not pre-registered would be charged the same amount as those who pre-registered, namely, $12.50.
MEMBERS PRESENT: Paulette Lovitz, Milton Crane, Hariette Rosenberg, Claire D’Agostino, Joann Barrington, Pamela Howell, and Ron Rosen.

The theme of the workshop was discussed. This year it will be "Covenant: The relationship between God and Israel." The speaker will be Rabbi Michael Chernick, an Orthodox Rabbi who teaches at HUC, New York Campus. He has suggested topics for the individual Rabbi’s workshops, as well as text sources. It was decided that the format for the Conference this year would consist of individual Rabbi workshops following the keynote presentation. The workshops would be in the morning and the afternoon, and the same topic would be discussed by the same Rabbi. We felt that this would give more people an opportunity to hear certain Rabbis. This is in lieu of afternoon panels of Rabbis which was tried last year.

Paulette Lovitz: Letters to the Rabbis will be going out tomorrow. Her deadline for return of information on their topics is January 5. However, she might begin following up by December 20th. The keynote speaker for 1994 has been obtained by Paulette. The speaker will be Rabbi Refat Soncino. He will speak on "Re-discovering Jewish Spirituality." The date we selected was March 13, 1994, with the alternate date of March 20, 1994.

Moderators (Bunny and Bernie Lovitky): The moderator coordinators have received a list of previous moderators. According to the time schedule, the services of the moderators will need to be obtained by the time of the next meeting on January 19, 1993. The group felt there needs to be some method of limiting the number of participants in a particular class since one of the Rabbis had an excessive number of people in his group last year, while other Rabbis had minimal numbers. The committee felt that by having morning and afternoon workshops done by the Rabbis, that this might even the number of people that participate in the different workshops.

Joann Barrington: The registration will begin at 8:30 A.M. rather than 9:00 A.M. There will be a separate area for teacher registration. The education directors will be strongly encouraged to submit a list of teachers in advance, along with their payments. Parking will be available at both the Temple and the Selig building nextdoor, so this should pose no problem. Security will consist of an additional officer to be present during the conference. There is normally one individual present until noon on Sundays. There will be two individuals present and this is covered in the budget. The floor plan of the Temple will be written up and Joann will give this to me to give to the Lovitkys for the moderators. Joann was given labels of participants from the past year’s conference. All these individuals will be sent the flyer concerning the 1993 Spirituality Conference. The postage will be paid out of the budget.
Hariette Rosenberg presented the bids from different caterers. After reviewing all of the bids, the committee felt that Bijan offered the best lunch. The lunch would be strictly kosher and would be $6.00 per box. We decided to order 250 pasta salads with chicken boxes and 50 veggie pocket boxes. The coffee and condiments will be ordered by the Temple. The plastic table cloths will be ordered by the Temple and will be paid out of the conference budget. The soft drinks will be purchased by Hariette and Pam prior to the conference and they will be re-imbursed out of the budget. It was felt that more than one coffee pot was needed for the conference and Joann was to look into this.

Discussion ensued about the bookkeeping, and it was stated by Milton that for the last two years, the host Temple has done the bookkeeping since the checks were made out to the host Temple. Joann was to discuss this with the Executive Director of the Temple, Mark Jacobson.

Claire D'Agostino: The posters will not be done by Cary Rosenthal this year since he absorbed most of the cost of this in the past. Paulette was to talk to a neighbor who does printing and she will report on cost of posters at our next meeting. The printing of the flyers and the programs was done previously by Mr. Zippy on Rivermont Parkway in Alpharetta. They had the best price available. Again, Paulette was going to get an estimate for printing from her neighbor and this would be reported at the next meeting.

The next meeting will be January 19, 1993, in the Youth Lounge at the Temple at 7:30 P. M.

Now, if you obey the LORD your God, to observe faithfully all His commandments which I enjoin upon you this day, the LORD your God will set you high above all the nations of the earth. 2All these blessings shall come upon you and take effect, if you will but heed the word of the LORD your God:

3Blessed shall you be in the city and blessed shall you be in the country.
4Blessed shall be the issue of your womb, the produce of your soil, and the offspring of your cattle, the calving of your herd and the lambing of your flock.
5Blessed shall be your basket and your kneading bowl.
6Blessed shall you be in your comings and blessed shall you be in your goings.

7The LORD will put to rout before you the enemies who attack you; they will march out against you by a single road, but flee from you by many• roads. 8The LORD will ordain blessings for you upon your barns and upon all your undertakings; He will bless you in the land that the LORD your God is giving you. 9The LORD will establish you as His holy people, as He swore to you, if you keep the commandments of the LORD your God and walk in His ways. 10And all the peoples of the earth shall see that the LORD's name is proclaimed over you, and they shall stand in fear of you. 11The LORD will give you abounding prosperity in the issue of your womb, the offspring of your cattle, and the produce of your soil in the land that the LORD swore to your fathers to assign to you. 12The LORD will open for you His bounteous store, the heavens, to provide rain for your land in season and to bless all your undertakings. You will be creditor to many nations, but debtor to none.

13The LORD will make you the head, not the tail; you will always be at the top and never at the bottom—if only you obey and faithfully observe the commandments of the LORD your God that I enjoin upon you this day, 14and do not deviate to the right or to the left from any of the commandments that I enjoin upon you this day and turn to the worship of other gods.

15But if you do not obey the LORD your God to observe faithfully all His commandments and laws which I enjoin upon you this day, all these curses shall come upon you and take effect:

16Cursed shall you be in the city and cursed shall you be in the country.
17Cursed shall be your basket and your kneading bowl.
18Cursed shall be the issue of your womb and the produce of your soil, the calving of your herd and the lambing of your flock.
19Cursed shall be you in your comings and cursed shall you be in your goings.

20The LORD will let loose against you calamity, panic, and frustration in all the enterprises you undertake, so that you shall soon be utterly wiped out because of your evildoing in forsaking Me. 21The LORD will make pestilence cling to you, until He has put an end to you in the land that you are entering to possess. 22The LORD will strike you with consumption, fever, and inflammation, with scorching heat and drought, with blight and mildew; they shall hound you until you perish. 23The skies above your head shall be copper and the earth under you iron. 24The LORD will make the rain of your land dust, and sand shall drop on you from the sky, until you are wiped out.

25The LORD will put to rout before your enemies; you shall march out against them by a single road, but flee from them by many roads; and you shall become a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth. Your carcases shall become food for all the birds of the sky and all the beasts of the earth, with none to frighten them off.

The LORD will strike you with the Egyptian inflammation, with hemorrhoids, boil-scars, and itch, from which you shall never recover.

The LORD will strike you with madness, blindness, and dismay. You shall grope at noon as a blind man gropes in the dark; you shall not prosper in your ventures, but shall be constantly abused and robbed, with none to give help.

If you pay the bride-price for a wife, another man shall enjoy her. If you build a house, you shall not live in it. If you plant a vineyard, you shall not harvest it. Your ox shall be slaughtered before your eyes, but you shall not eat of it; your ass shall be seized in front of you, and it shall not return to you; your flock shall be delivered to your enemies, with none to help you. Your sons and daughters shall be delivered to another people, while you look on; and your eyes shall strain for them constantly, but you shall be helpless. A people you do not know shall eat up the produce of your soil and all your gains; you shall be abused and downtrodden continually, until you are driven mad by what your God has assigned to you, and the wife of his bosom and the children he has spared to share with his most tender and fastidious among you shall be too mean to his brother and the wife of her bosom, and her son and her daughter, the afterbirth that issues from between her legs and the babies she bears; she shall eat them secretly, because of utter want, in the desperate straits to which your enemy shall reduce you.

The stranger in your midst shall rise above you higher and higher, while you sink lower and lower. He shall be your creditor, but you shall not be his; he shall be the head and you the tail.

See Exod. 9.9–10.

Lit. "numbness of heart."

Cf. 20.6.

All these curses shall befall you; they shall pursue you and overtake you, until you are wiped out, because you did not heed the LORD your God and keep the commandments and laws that He enjoined upon you.

They shall serve as signs and proofs against you and your offspring for all time. Because you would not serve the LORD your God in joy and gladness over the abundance of everything, you shall have to serve—in hunger and thirst, naked and lacking everything—the enemies whom the LORD will let loose against you. He will put an iron yoke upon your neck until He has wiped you out.

The LORD will bring a nation against you from afar, from the end of the earth, which will swoop down like the eagle—a nation whose language you do not understand, a ruthless nation, that will show the old no regard and the young no mercy. It shall devour the offspring of your cattle and the produce of your soil, until you have been wiped out, leaving you nothing of new grain, wine, or oil, of the calving of your herds and the lambing of your flocks, until it has brought you to ruin.

It shall shut you up in all your towns throughout your land until every mighty, towering wall in which you trust has come down. And when you are shut up in all your towns throughout your land that the LORD your God has assigned to you, you shall eat your own issue, the flesh of your sons and daughters that the LORD your God has assigned to you, because of the desperate straits to which your enemy shall reduce you.

He who is most tender and fastidious among you shall be too mean to his brother and the wife of his bosom, and the children he has spared to share with his most tender and fastidious among you, so tender and dainty that she would never venture to set a foot on the ground, shall begrudge the husband of her bosom, and her son and her daughter, the afterbirth that issues from between her legs and the babies she bears; she shall eat them secretly, because of utter want, in the desperate straits to which your enemy shall reduce you in all your towns.

If you fail to observe faithfully all the terms of this Teaching that are written in this book, to reverence this honored and awesome Name, the LORD your God, the LORD will inflict extraordinary plagues upon you and your offspring, strange and lasting plagues, malignant and chronic diseases. He will bring back upon you all the sicknesses of Egypt that... you dreaded so, and they shall cling to you. Moreover, the LORD will bring upon you all the other diseases and plagues that are not mentioned in this book of Teaching, until you are wiped out. You shall be left a scant few, after having been as numerous as the stars in the skies, because you did not heed the command of the LORD your God. And as the LORD once delighted in making you prosperous and many, so will the LORD now delight in causing you to perish and in wiping you out; you shall be torn from the land that you are about to enter and possess. The LORD will scatter you among all the peoples from one end of the earth to the other, and there you shall serve other gods, wood and stone, whom neither you nor your ancestors have experienced. Yet even among those nations you shall find no peace, nor shall your foot find a place to rest. The LORD will give you there an anguish heart and eyes that pine and a despondent spirit. The life you face shall be precarious; you shall be in terror, night and day, with no assurance of survival. In the morning you shall say, “If only it were evening!” and in the evening you shall say, “If only it were morning!”—because of what your heart shall dread and your eyes shall see. The LORD will send you back to Egypt in galleys, by a route which I told you you should not see again. There you shall offer yourselves for sale to your enemies as male and female slaves, but none will buy.

These are the terms of the covenant which the LORD commanded Moses to conclude with the Israelites in the land of Moab, in addition to the covenant which He had made with them at Horeb.

Moses summoned all Israel and said to them: You have seen all that the LORD did before your very eyes in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh and to all his courtiers and to his whole country: the wondrous feats that you saw with your own eyes, those prodigious signs and marvels. Yet to this day the LORD has not given you a mind to understand or eyes to see or ears to hear. I led you through the wilderness forty years; the clothes on your back did not wear out, nor did the sandals on your feet; you had no bread to eat and no wine or other intoxicant to drink—that you might know that I the LORD am your God.

The Gary Metzel Memorial Spirituality Conference

"In May of 1983 I attended a UAHC/CCAR Commission on Worship in New York City. The major presentation was made by Rabbi Eugene Borowitz on the subject of Spirituality. It is Rabbi Borowitz's opinion that the aspect of spirituality in Judaism has been neglected so much in recent decades that it now needs to be given special emphasis. This presentation made such a strong impression on me that I started to think about how to structure an action program based on these principles, with which I fully agree.*

The above are excerpts from comments by Gary Metzel who developed the first Spirituality Conference held in October, 1984, which has been recreated by many other groups throughout the country.

Gary died on September 19, 1989, following a lengthy illness. In October, 1989, the Atlanta Reform Synagogue Council unanimously voted to dedicate the annual event as the Gary Metzel Memorial Spirituality Conference.

Dear Spirituality Conference Chairperson:

Thank you for accepting Chairmanship of your respective Committee for the 1993 Gary Metzel Spirituality Conference.

As you know, the Conference will be held on March 21, 1993, at the Temple. The Keynote speaker is Rabbi Michael Chernick. His theme is "Covenant: The Divine and Human Partnership". He will study ways God and Israel need each other and help other, a theme prominent in both rabbinic and kabbalistic/chassidic thought.

I have enclosed the schedule of the meetings and other important dates related to the Conference. Please note that each of the Steering Committee Meetings will be held at the Temple. It is critical that everyone attend each of these meetings since we have kept the number of meetings to an absolute minimum.

I look forward to working with each of you.

Sincerely,

RONALD ROSEN, M. D., CHAIRMAN
1993 GARY METZEL MEMORIAL SPIRITUALITY CONFERENCE

COVENANT IS THEME OF SPIRITUALITY CONFERENCE

The Atlanta Reform Synagogue Council and the Union of American Hebrew Congregations Southeast Region will present the ninth annual Gary Metzel Memorial Spirituality Conference on Sunday, March 21st, at the Temple on Peachtree Street.

The theme of this year's conference is "Covenant: The Relationship Between God and Israel," and nearly a dozen rabbis from four southeastern states will host individual workshops on the subject.

The keynote speaker for the conference will be Rabbi Michael Chernick, professor of rabbinic literature at HUC-JIR, New York School, the Reform rabbinic seminary.

Rabbi Chernick's specialization is the field of Talmud and Jewish law on which he has written extensively. He received his rabbinic training from Yeshiva University's Rabbi Isaac Elchanan Theological Seminary and his doctorate from Yeshiva's Bernard Revel Graduate School. An Orthodox rabbi with special association with the Reform movement, he has a unique vantage point from which to view Jewish traditions in American life.

Rabbi Chernick's keynote address will be given at 9:30 am, following conference registration at 8:30 am. There will be ten concurrent one-hour workshops conducted by individual rabbis from the southeast during the morning and a repeat of the ten following a kosher luncheon provided by Bijan's. The conference will conclude by 2:30 pm.

As an adjunct to the conference, Rabbi Chernick will conduct a morning workshop for religious school teachers from the area's Reform congregations.

Registration may be made by sending a check in the amount of $12.50, payable to "Spirituality" to The Temple, 1589 Peachtree Street, Atlanta 30309.

JOANNE BARRINGTON: The building will open at 7:30 A. M. on the day of the conference. The building will also be open until 3:00 P. M. on Shabbat, the day before the conference. This will enable us to deliver drinks the day before the conference.

The ARSC will pay for the other guard from 8:00 A. M. to 3:00 P. M. The rate is $17.00 per hour. This is covered in our budget.

MODERATORS: (BUNNIE AND BERNIE LOVITKY) Reports that they have twenty two moderators at present. They will not be present at the conference but they will have a replacement to be in charge of the moderators. Moderator’s training session was not felt to be necessary. Most of the moderators are seasoned veterans, and the ones who have not worked as moderators before can be trained by telephone.

JACKIE METZEL: Jackie will host a reception at her home on Saturday night before the Spirituality Conference. Members of the Spirituality Committee and their spouses, along with the keynote speaker will be invited.

New Art Exhibit
In Social Hall
The Fine Arts Committee has hung, in the small social hall, the works of Meryl Cohen, a San Diego artist who has recently moved to Atlanta. Ms. Cohen's subjects are wide-ranging and include American Indians, abstract design, still life, colorful landscapes, symbolic political statements and haunting tableaux of Jerusalem. Her interest in painting and design is partly an outgrowth of her professional work in the field of interior design. She began incorporating fabrics from her drapery manufacturing business into her painting and developing a mixed media approach to her visual arts.

Arab-Israel Art At Arts Center
A collection of Israeli and Arab children’s drawings will be on display in the Galleria of the Woodruff Arts Center in February. Sponsored by the Givot Haviva Institute in Israel, the works are visions of peace seen through the eyes of children from two distinct cultures living side by side.

Outreach Again Offers Basic Judaism Course
Rabbi Larry Kushner, Chairperson of Temple Sinai’s Outreach Committee, has announced the spring schedule of basic Judaism classes to be taught by Rabbi Kranz. Classes will be offered 10:00 to 11:30 am, Sundays, February 14, March 14, April 18 and May 16.

From The Library Shelf...

The Temple Sinai Library occupies a special place in our building and in the hearts of the congregation. From the first days of Temple Sinai 25 years ago, the concept of "People of the Book" has been a dominant part of our congregational mission. The thousands of books that fill the library have all been purchased with donated funds, recognition of our congregational commitment.

There are two distinct library funds. The first is the "Library Fund." The money donated to this fund is used directly and totally for the purchase of library books. It is the fund that has filled our shelves so well over the years.

The second fund, "The Rose and Marvin Sugarman Library Endowment Fund," is an endowed fund generously established by the friends of Dr. and Mrs. Marvin Sugarman in 1989. The interest from this endowed fund, though unspecified, has been used to purchase high cost reference books, to help underwrite visits by prominent authors to the religious school and for unanticipated, extraordinary library expenses not covered by the operating budget supplied by the Board of Trustees or Library Fund.

The library is an important and meaningful way for congregants to pay tribute to a special person or event. It is important that everyone understands the two funds and how monies donated to them are spent. Both are important to the success of the library. When you make your contribution to the library, be sure you specify into which fund you want your donation to be placed.

VERTICAL FILE

The library is desperately in need of someone to help prepare materials for the vertical file. This is the collection of current events articles and non-book printed material that is kept for use of congregants, teachers and students.

UAHC Offers Rabbinic Aide Program

The Union of American Hebrew Congregations has announced the continuance of the highly successful Rabbinic Aide Program, conducted at the UAHC Kutz Camp-Institute in Warwick NY.

During the summers of 1988 to 1992, 85 men and women from large and small UAHC congregations, gathered at Camp Kutz for two weeks of intensive Jewish study and practical training in a number of rabbinic roles. They have subsequently returned to their temples to assist their rabbis — or to function in place of a rabbi where there currently is none.

Cost of the course is $1,550 and the dates for this year's program will be August 8 to August 22. Participation will be limited to 20 students on a first-come, first-served basis.

Further information is available in the temple office.

BY RABBI PHIL KRANZ

One of the most familiar quotes from the biblical book of Proverbs is a verse found In chapter 22. It says, “train a child in the way he ought to go and he will not swerve from it even in old age.”

The nineteenth century commentator, Rabbi Meir Leibush Malbim, makes the following observations regarding the verse: “On the one hand,” he says, “the parent is urged to begin educating his child early in life to moral and spiritual values; for the impressions of childhood are imparted deeply on the psyche and have a much stronger effect, even in old age, than later impressions. On the other hand, a child should be educated ‘according to his way.’ For everyone has his own mental ability, talents and propensities which can be recognized and should be respected.

5. Develop mutual respect. Act in a respectful way toward your children. ‘Train a child in the way he ought to go and he will not swerve from it even in old age.”

6. Discipline constructively. Give clear direction and enforce the limits on your child’s behavior. Emphasize: “Do this” instead of “Don’t do that.”

3. Whenever possible, spend time with your children. Play with them, talk to them, teach them to develop a family spirit and give them a sense of belonging.

4. Give the needs of your mate priority. One parent put it this way: “A husband and wife are apt to be successful parents when they put their marriage first. Don’t worry about the children getting ‘second best.’ Child centered households produce neither happy marriages nor happy children.

2. Discipline constructively. Give clear direction and enforce the limits on your child’s behavior. Emphasize: “Do this” instead of “Don’t do that.”

1. Love abundantly. The most important task is to love and really care about your child. This gives him or her a sense of security and support. It smooths out the rough edges of society.

7. Listen, really listen. This means giving your children undivided attention, putting aside your beliefs and feelings, and trying to understand your children’s point of view.

6. Develop mutual respect. Act in a respectful way toward your children, ‘Say ‘please’ and ‘thank you,” and apologize when you are wrong. Children who are treated with respect learn how to treat you and others respectfully.

5. Develop mutual respect. Act in a respectful way toward your children. ‘Train a child in the way he ought to go and he will not swerve from it even in old age.”

4. Give the needs of your mate priority. One parent put it this way: “A husband and wife are apt to be successful parents when they put their marriage first. Don’t worry about the children getting ‘second best.’ Child centered households produce neither happy marriages nor happy children.

Curtain to Rise on Sinai

On "Revue" April 3rd

A large core of hidden talent among the Sinai membership has been tapped for the March event in the temple's year-long 25th anniversary celebration. On Saturday, April 3rd, the "Temple Sinai Players" will present a humorous history of Temple Sinai in song and dance, a revue poking fun at some of our most recognizable personalities and institutions.

Enid Kam and Dan Jacob, past and present Executive Directors of the congregation, are the targets of one skit entitled, "Can't Do" — a common refrain associated with the job. Custodians Allen Lewis and Terry Johnson are presented in a hilarious kitchen scene, and Rabbi Kranz and Lazar come in for their share of attention.

Among the easily-recognized situations which are the subject of parody are the sorting of seats during the High Holy Days and the weary trudge up "Mount" Sinai's driveway.

As rehearsals are getting underway now, anyone interested in clicking their heels, singing a song, painting a set or going for coffee can satisfy that urge to get into show biz by calling co-chairs of the event, Arlene Taylor, at 843-9759, or Daniel B. Jacob, Executive Director.

Plans for Temple Sinai's 25th anniversary celebratory Dinner Dance on Saturday, April 24th are well underway, according to co-chairs Honey and Howard Workman. The gala at the Swissotel will begin with a get-acquainted open bar cocktail hour at 7:30 pm and will be followed by dinner at 8:15 pm. Wine will be served during the multi-course dinner, and a cash bar will be open following the cocktail party. The evening will feature dancing to music provided by the Steve Winick Orchestra, as well as a brief-but-exciting auction during which guests will be able to bid on glamorous travel and entertainment prizes.

While the planning phase is approaching completion, help is still needed for the various committees. If you would like to become involved, please contact Susan and Jay Levitt, at 955-6272, or Lili and Bob Janko, at 394-1956, or Richard and Patty Poline, at 988-0157.
