BORKOWSKI/BORKOWSKA Ida/Michal, Lola/Lenia, Kaila, Henia, Lonek, Leon, NEIMAN Zelda

nie фигурует.

Muzeum wyjaśnia, że podczas ewakuacji KL Auschwitz w styczniu 1945 r. władze SS obozu zniszczyły prawie wszystkie ważniejsze akt, w tym także akta personalne więźniów.

My dear friends:

When you look at the attached brochure and the program we are offering for Remembrance Mission to Israel ’95, we know that you will want to be in Jerusalem with us.

We invite you to join us for an unforgettable journey leaving April 30th and returning May 11th.

You will not only be marking many solemn occasions commemorating the 50th anniversary of liberation but you will be celebrating our golden rebirth. This is the legacy we offer to the world. It is our historical mandate.

We look forward to hearing from you. Please do not hesitate to call if you have any questions.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr. Meed,

Thank you very much for your invitation to attend the event on February 19, 1995. I would have liked very much to be with you on the occasion of the dinner marking the culmination of "Fifty Years... of Life After the Holocaust". However, I regret that I will be unable to attend this important ceremony.

Fifty years after World War II, we still live in the shadow of the Holocaust, a shadow which does not fade - and never will. The Holocaust was the worst tragedy to befall the Jewish people since the destruction of the Second Temple. It is part of all our personal biographies, even if we were not there. It is our national history, written in blood and tears. The preservation of our past is a legacy incumbent upon each and every one of us; for a nation without a past cannot have any future. We will never forget the Holocaust - the loss of one third of our people, the systematic attempt to annihilate our culture, our history, our contribution to humanity. We cannot forget.

Yet the Holocaust survivors, who have endured the inferno, who witnessed the horror and suffered unspeakable torment, found the strength to rebuild their lives and have played an essential role in the creation of the State of Israel and its development. Through their commitment and dedication, they have overcome seemingly insurmountable obstacles.

We are aware of the tremendous contribution which the survivors of the Holocaust have made to Israel and the Jewish communities in the diaspora, to the history of the Jewish people, and to future generations. I would like to express my admiration for all that they have accomplished over the past 50 years. They are a source of inspiration to all of us.

I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate you and the Federation of Jewish Holocaust Survivors for your outstanding accomplishments. May you continue to have every success in your endeavors.

With warm greetings from Jerusalem,

Sincerely yours,

Y. Rabin

THE ETERNAL NAMES by Michael Schwartz

In this painting, the noted Jewish artist conveys over 490 Hebrew and Yiddish names...names which represent the 6,000,000 Jewish men, women and children who perished in the Holocaust at the murderous hands of the Nazis. Fifty years after the most gruesome chapter in the history of our People...the names have survived...and those who survived the death camps have rebuilt their lives and families...and today stand as the ultimate tribute to the memory of the Roshhashanah...and to the Eternity of the Jewish People.

"Mas 167, Rubin and Lola Lansky Papers, 1940-1996, The Cuba Family Archives for Southern Jewish History at The Breman Museum"
WE TAKE THIS OATH! We take it in the shadow of flames whose tongues scar the soul of our people. We vow in the name of dead parents and children; we vow, with our sadness hidden, our faith renewed; we vow, we shall never let the sacred memory of our perished Six Million be scorned or erased.

WE SAW THEM hungry, in fear. We saw them rush to battle. We saw them in the loneliness of night – true to their faith. At the threshold of death, we saw them. We received their silence in silence, merged their tears with ours.

Deporations, executions, mass graves, death camps, mute prayers. cries of revolt, desperation. Torn scrolls. cities and towns. villages and hamlets. The young. The old. The rich. The poor. Ghetto fighters and partisans. Scholars and messianic dreamers. Ravaged faces. fists raised. Like clouds of fire, all have vanished.

WE TAKE THIS OATH! Vision becomes word, to be handed down from father to son. From mother to daughter. From generation to generation.

REMEMBER what the German killers and their accomplices did to our people. Remember them with rage and contempt. Remember what an indifferent world did to us and to itself. Remember the victims with pride and with sorrow. Remember also the deeds of the righteous Gentiles.

WE SHALL ALSO REMEMBER the miracle of the Jewish rebirth in the land of our ancestors, in the independent state of Israel. Here, pioneers and fighters returned to our people the dignity and majesty of nationhood. From the ruins of their lives, orphans and widows built homes and old-new fortresses on our redeemed land. To the end of our days we shall remember all those who realized and raised their dream – our dream – of redemption to the loftiest heights.

WE TAKE THIS OATH here in Jerusalem, our eternal spiritual sanctuary. Let our legacy endure as a stone of the Temple Wall. For here prayers and memories burn. They burn and burn and will not be consumed.

Dear Friends:

I am honored to have this opportunity to send my personal greetings to everyone attending the "Fifty Years...of Life After the Holocaust" dinner in Miami Beach this evening. I very much regret that I cannot join you, but I want to offer my very best wishes for a successful and productive event.

As we observe the 50th Anniversary of the end of the second World War and reflect on the horrors endured by European Jewry, all of us should recommit ourselves to ensuring that the history of the Holocaust is known and understood fully in every corner of the globe. Certainly, the legacy of commemoration must be passed on to future generations. The cause of human rights and human dignity throughout the world is well served by the work of all of those associated with Federation of Jewish Holocaust Survivors.

Thank you for the tremendous contributions each of you have made to your communities and to the United States of America. Please be assured of my support and friendship for all of you.

Sincerely,

Al Gore

"Mss 167, Rubin and Lola Lansky Papers, 1940-1996, The Cuba Family Archives for Southern Jewish History at the Breman Museum"
Mendelssohn:

Formally this outstanding composer of tonight's violin concerto was known as Jacob Ludwig Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy (1809-1847). He was a grandson of the sage of the German Enlightenment, Moses Mendelssohn. He was a child prodigy, virtuoso pianist, innovative conductor, and composer of Romantic music of great classical beauty and restraint. Mendelssohn's life is also symbolic of the rise of the nineteenth-century Jew out of centuries of oppression and degradation to the most enlightened level of expression, embodied in personality of gentility and compassion. His violin concerto, beloved as the finest work of its kind, is the most perfect example of the fusion of the classical with the Romantic.

Mendelssohn served as a model for many of the composers who followed him, including Brahms, Dvorak, and Mahler, and was the first modern conductor. Before him, conducting was largely limited to cues from the first violin. He used arm movements to mark beats, prodded dynamic reactions from his players, and supplied a continuing pulse and direction to the music. Despite a happy marriage and family life, he was shattered by the death of his beloved sister, Fanny. He suffered a series of strokes, dying at the age of 38, the most acclaimed musician in Europe.

Jean Sibelius:

This leading Finnish nationalist composer lived 1865-1957. Many of his works combine an uncompromising bleakness with a deep-seated romanticism, inspired by Finnish myths, legends, and landscape. Many were allegorical protests against the Russian domination of Finland. Though nationalist in origin, his works do not always use folk music, including "Karelia" and "Finlandia," performed tonight, originally written in 1894. Of note, during the Second World War, the Jews of Finland survived with few losses. Although reportedly eight Jews were turned over to the Germans by the head of the Finnish State Police, Prime Minister Johann Wilhelm Rangel later represented to Himmler in the summer of 1942, that (Finland) "had no Jewish question," and the small Jewish refugee population was later evacuated by Finland officials to sanctuary in Sweden.
Tonight's rendition of Kol Nidrei by Bruch, was composed in 1873 for cello and orchestra and rewritten 21 years later for cello and piano. The original sacred Jewish prayer dates from the eighth century and the earliest version of its haunting melody can be traced to the fifteenth century. It is interesting to note that Bruch was not a Jewish composer. The prayer is sung around the world on Yom Kippur by Jews, but the melody is a favorite among classical musicians and opera singers of all backgrounds.

Cradle of Fire:
This is an anthology of five historic pieces orchestrated by Michael Isaacson, an American Jewish composer residing in California. "The Partisans' Song," featured tonight, was originally written by Hirsh Glik, a Vilna-born poet who escaped the 1943 round-up of Jews and joined the Partisans. After the Warsaw ghetto uprising he was inspired to write what eventually became the official hymn of the Jewish Partisans. He was sent to a concentration camp in Estonia, escaped when the Red Army came through and was killed at age 24 fighting the Germans in the nearby woods. The first line of the song rings with hope: "Zog nit keimol az du geist dem letzten veg." "Never say that you are on your final road." Later in the piece the partisans would exclaim, as we do tonight: "Mir Zeynen do!, "We are here!"

This year marks the fiftieth anniversary of the liberation of Holocaust survivors and the end of the Nazi Death Camps. This milestone calls for much celebration. Tonight's "Symphonic Tribute" is meant to be a meaningful and uplifting evening for survivors, their families, friends and the general community. This concert was conceived by a group of dedicated men and women who are children of Holocaust survivors. The younger generation wishes to show its admiration, respect and gratitude to the survivors. They are our real life heroes and we honor them in this tribute.

The members of the "Event Committee" are part of an Atlanta organization known as Eternal Life Hemshech, and are considered the Second Generation (and Future Generations) of Hemshech. The parent organization, Hemshech, was founded more than thirty years ago by local survivors. Its name, "Hemshech" is the Hebrew word for "continuation". Today there are approximately 150 survivors who actively participate in Hemshech's activities. The Hemshech founders created a beautiful monument at Greenwood Cemetery thirty years ago: the "Memorial to the Six Million". Various services are held at the monument each and every year. In 1985, through the guidance and generosity of Rubin and Lola Lansky and Abe and Caroline Besser, Hemshech created an Endowment Fund. The Fund's purpose is to award scholarships to teachers, students and individuals who have shown interest in the study of the Holocaust. The Fund also supports Holocaust education and this Endowment is overseen by the Atlanta Jewish Federation. The Fund has been privately supported by survivors, their families and friends over the past ten years. This event is the first time that funds are being raised through a public event to aid in the "continuation" of the Fund.

Tonight's event is being realized thanks to the tremendous efforts of the Atlanta Community Symphony Orchestra. The Orchestra is a project of the Atlanta Music Club and the "Symphonic Tribute" marks the premier of their 38th season. The Orchestra and soloists are generously donating their time for this concert.
Arnold Rosenberg, Narrator

Both the ACSO and Hemshech are proud to have enlisted this experienced music broadcaster in tonight’s program. Mr. Rosenberg is well known to area listeners of WABE FM90 where he has worked as a volunteer since 1969. He has delighted us with his musical programs and commentary ranging from opera to classical and contemporary pieces. He grew up in St. Paul, Minnesota (“Lake Wobegone” to listeners), and served in the U.S. Army between 1943-1946. Near the end of the War, he worked in Paris on the Army newspaper “Stars and Stripes.” He visited Dachau soon after the Liberation and has vivid memories of attending High Holiday services near Berlin 50 years ago. On the Day of Atonement, Yom Kippur, 1945, he prayed alongside Holocaust survivors in civilian services. Following the War, he studied at the University of Paris, and later received a Bachelor’s Degree in Journalism and Music at the University of Minnesota. He was a music critic on the air in St. Paul/Minneapolis in the late 1940’s, relocated to Atlanta in the 1960’s and has kept active in musical journalism ever since. He and his wife raised their three children here, all of whom have a great appreciation of the arts. Being with us tonight is “hemshesh” or a sense of continuation as he has just returned from Eastern Europe (Berlin and Auschwitz) and is speaking to an audience including so many area survivors during a celebratory anniversay.

choly that builds to a triumphant crescendo near the end. It is a contemporary piece that is timeless; musically the listener is moved from a sense of quiet grieving to a joyous conclusion or affirmation of spirituality and life. Mr. Oliverio has credits from full orchestral and ensemble scores to soundtracks for feature films and national television specials. He has won four Emmy Awards as well as a Telly Award for broadcast music composition. His score to the film "Time and Dreams", received an Emmy and was commissioned as part of the United States' successful bid for the 1996 Olympics. His works have been performed across the United States and abroad and he recently returned from the former Soviet Union where he recorded a CD of his orchestral works with the Khartov Philharmonic under Vakhtang Jordania. Mr. Oliverio serves as Composer in Residence and Associate Professor of Music at Georgia Tech, and has been Composer in Residence for Emory University, the University of Wisconsin and the Georgia Council for the Arts. He is the President and Founder of Living Composers Inc.

Susan Pitard, Concertmaster

Ms. Pitard, originally from Kingston, New York has been performing for Atlanta audiences for over 25 years. She was a violinist with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra from 1968-1990. Upon joining the ACSO last season as concertmaster she performed the Bruch Violin Concerto solo. She presently does solo and ensemble freelance engagements in the Atlanta area and is a member of the Dekalb College Music Faculty. She has given private violin instruction throughout her career and established Suzuki Violin schools in Morristown, Tennessee and Marietta, Georgia. She received her Bachelor of Music degree in violin performance in 1968 at Indiana University, and had other formal education at Wayne State University and University of Tennessee. She studied under university professors Josef Gingold, the concertmaster of the Cleveland and NBC Symphony Orchestras, Mischa Mischenoff, concertmaster of Detroit and NBC Symphony Orchestras and William Starr, a Suzuki Violin Pedagogue. She took part in Chamber Music Seminars with the Hungarian Quartet.

John Morrison, Conductor

Mr. Morrison is starting his second season as conductor of the Atlanta Community Symphony Orchestra (ACSO), and for the past four seasons he has been director of the Paramount Summer Music Festival in Cobb County. He was the Divisional Music Director of The Salvation Army for the state of Georgia, and has been the Conductor of the Festival at Sandpoint of the Spokane Symphony, where Gunther Schuller is the Artistic Director. He has performed with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, Atlanta Symphony Pops, Atlanta Pops Orchestra, Atlanta Ritz Carlton Orchestra, Atlanta Symphony Brass Quintet and Atlanta Opera Orchestra. He is presently principal trumpet with the Atlanta Ballet Orchestra. He is pioneering a new Chamber Music Program at Lassiter High School and maintains an active teaching studio with over 50 Cobb County students enrolled. Educated at Boston University, he studied under Rolf Smedvig, Armando Ghitalla, and Roger Voisin. In Boston he performed with the Marboro-Brattleboro Music Festival, Concert Opera Orchestra of Boston, Handel and Haydn Society, and Boston Symphony. Mr. Morrison studied under Schuller, Previn, Bernstein and Masur at Tanglewood in the Berkshires, and attended the American Institute of Musical Studies in Graz, Austria for three years. He taught in Massachusetts schools for nine years, later at Eastern Nazarene College and Agnes Scott College. He resides in Cobb County with his wife, Lisa, and their young son, Tom.
Abe Gerson, Composer, Orchestra Violinist, Personnel Manager

Mr. Gerson was born in Lodz, Poland and started playing violin at nine years of age. His musical studies were interrupted in his youth by the onset of World War II. When the Lodz Ghetto closed, he was incarcerated in Auschwitz. He continued to play the violin along with other prisoners in the camp who had musical backgrounds. Performing for the soldiers was a means to obtain food and survive. Upon entering the Death Camp he remembers "people hitting you in the head, in the stomach," and from his first impressions melodies began to stir in his head symbolic of his daily existence. His work, "Rhapsody," featured tonight, was thus begun. The soldiers became the snare drum, the mournful strains of life the cello solo piece. He promised himself that one day when free, he would put his mental notes to paper. After the "Krieg," the War, he studied with Ferdinand Wirsing, Munich Symphony Concertmaster. He resettled in Atlanta and is grateful to his local teachers who encouraged his return to music, Ruth Kern and Senta Mueller Hutcheson. In the 1980's, he was able at last to turn his heartfelt "Rhapsody" from Auschwitz into a beautiful score for orchestra. In recent years Mr. Gerson has worked with Gregor Brainburg, a "Landsman" who was concertmaster of the Stalling Oper Theater and is a retired professor of violin/viola at Washington University, St. Louis. He has been a proud member of the ACSO for 20 years. He is honored to have his colleagues perform his composition and greatly appreciates the generosity they have shown in taking part in this "Symphonic Tribute."

Rachel Antman Oliver, Piano

A renown local pianist, Ms. Oliver is a native of Israel. She was born into a musical family. Her father was born in Eastern Europe and met her mother, a 6th generation Israeli, in Jerusalem while singing in a choir. Most of her father's family perished in Poland during the Holocaust. She studied at the Jerusalem Academy of Music with Alfred Schroder and received a B.A. with Distinction. She finished as a finalist in Israel's first Arthur Rubinstein Competition and later studied with Stefan Askenase at the Royal Conservatory in Brussels where she received her Masters in Music. She has won many prizes in piano and chamber music. In Israel she was coached by Edward Steuermann, Rudolf Serkin, and Claudio Arrau and has taught piano in Israel, Brussels, Detroit, and Atlanta.

She has performed with principal members of the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra, the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, and the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra. She has been a soloist with the Cobb Symphony Orchestra, the Atlanta-Emory Orchestra and tonight's featured Atlanta Community Symphony Orchestra. In her own family there has been a wonderful musical tradition of "hemshech" or "continuation," as both of her children have musical and theatrical aspirations.

Daniel "Donny" Oliver, cello

This remarkable 17-year old is Ms. Oliver's youngest child. He was born in Michigan. He is a senior honor student at the Lovett School, where he is principal cellist of the chamber orchestra. He began his cello studies at age 11 with Kathleen Kee of the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, has studied with Martha Gerschefski and now studies with Daniel Lafer, who is the associate principal cellist of the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra. He has been a member of the Atlanta Symphony Youth Orchestra for the last three years and during the current season he has been chosen as principal cellist. Donny has performed with the All-State Orchestra, All-Select Orchestra and has been a soloist with the Lovett Orchestra under Georgia Ekonomou. As a winner of the Young Artist's Concerto Competition organized by the Atlanta Music Club, he has performed with the Atlanta Community Symphony Orchestra at Georgia State University. He was invited to solo with the Lovett Orchestra at the opening celebration of their new cultural arts center in October 1995. His academic achievements have been many and he enjoys being a member of his school's wrestling team as well as other extra-curricular clubs.

James Oliverio, Composer

Mr. Oliverio, whose work "Elegy," (also referred to as "Go Gently, My Friend") is being featured tonight, is a treasured Atlanta composer. The original score was written in 1984 as a short elegy upon the sudden death of a close friend of the composer. Mr. Oliverio revised this in 1994, and dedicated it to the memory of his friend when it had its local premiere. The work has a folk-like simplicity and opens with the middle strings, later joined by other instruments to enrich the texture. There are solo passages for clarinet, oboe and English horn that maintain a sense of melo-

Arrival in Israel

Welcome, dear friends!

We would like to thank you for accepting our invitation and for coming to participate in the events marking 50 years since the defeat of Nazi Germany and the liberation of the camps, which will be taking place in Yad Vashem and other locations in Jerusalem and Tel Aviv.

By marking this 50th year, the State of Israel is both focussing on the fate of the generation which experienced the agonies of the Shoah, and expressing its admiration for the survivors, in Israel and abroad, who emerged from the inferno to rebuild their lives.

This 50th anniversary also gives the State of Israel the opportunity to express its gratitude to the Allies who fought against the Nazi foe - a battle in which one and a half million Jewish fighters participated - and to honor the memory of the fallen soldiers.

Your visit to Israel at this time, and your decision to participate in the special events taking place at Yad Vashem, give us - the Yad Vashem Directorate and staff - great satisfaction.

The shared fate which befell the survivors of the Shoah living in Israel and in the Diaspora today, obligates all of us to work together to commemorate the memory of the victims and the memory of the Jewish world which was destroyed in the Shoah, to ensure that the Shoah will never be forgotten, and to fight together against Holocaust denial and antisemitism. These goals are our priorities here at Yad Vashem - the Holocaust Martyrs' and Heroes' Remembrance Authority - and to this end we strive daily in the fields of education, research, publication and commemoration.

The one and a half million people who visit Yad Vashem each year bear witness to this fact. Yad Vashem is currently preparing to deal with the reality of the 21st century, when the challenge will be to hand down the memory of the Shoah to the third and fourth generations.

To this end, Yad Vashem is making a supreme effort to gather together documents, testimonies, pictures, films and artifacts, and to record the names of Holocaust victims. Top priority is also being given to educational projects, and to the organization of the School for Holocaust Studies which will be established at Yad Vashem. Furthermore, we are extending and refurbishing the Historical Museum and the library, furthering our research and publications with the help of the International Center for Holocaust Studies, and finally, we are preparing to receive an annual visitor population of over 2 million, mostly not Jewish, by designing visual aids and establishing a visitors information center.

In this brochure you will find the special program of events prepared for you by Yad Vashem's Public Relations Department, alongside the official events of the State of Israel centering on the State ceremony at the Sultan's Pool in Jerusalem on May 10th, 1995, in the presence of President Weizman and Prime Minister Rabin.

I would like to wish you a pleasant stay in Israel, and hope that the bond which will be forged between us in the course of your visit will be strengthened in the future, and will enable us to make you partners in all the important endeavours of Yad Vashem in the fields of education, research and commemoration of the Shoah.

Yours sincerely,

Avner Shalev
Chairman of the Yad Vashem Directorate
