Dear Mr. Gordon:

I am very grateful for your letter of May 9th. I am sorry that I have been forced to decline the invitation to attend Promotion Day Exercises at Bass Junior High School. I expect to leave here about May 27th or 28th for the East and will be gone until the middle of June. I am awfully sorry that this is the case.

With best wishes,

Most sincerely,

PRESENTATION OF BOBBY JONES

It has been said that Atlanta is the best advertised city of its size on the American continent. <sup>planned to this morning</sup> We have with us, as our honored guest, one of the best reasons for this highly favorable publicity. This gentleman had been chosen to represent Sports. His fame is known throughout the world, as the champion of champions, for the United States as well as Great Britain. He set an example of real achievement by winning the Southern Amateur Golf Championship when only 15 years old.

The gentleman who had been chosen to represent sports is Mr. Robert Tyre Jones, Jr. the world's greatest golfer of all times. I regret that Mr. Jones was unable to be with us this morning. This is his response to our invitation.
