December 27, 1960

Dear Doctor:

Your letter in application for continued designation as an Aviation Medical Examiner for the Federal Aviation Agency has been received by this office and your redesignation approved.

We are pleased to have you continue as an Examiner in Region I and are enclosing your Certificate of Designation. This certificate is to replace any comparable document previously issued by the Agency and is to be retained and displayed by the Examiner for the duration of his service. Future arrangements will be made to revalidate these certificates annually, but details concerning the proposed procedure are not currently available.

Identification cards will also be issued to all Aviation Medical Examiners in the near future directly from the Washington office.

Sincerely,

Albert F. Esch, M.D.

Samuel L. Gordon

By virtue of exemplary personal support of Emory
University through the Emory Loyalty Fund

Emory Challenger

This act of generosity is representative of the American principle that freedom can best be preserved and the lot of mankind can best be improved through private action by private individuals. This example is a challenge to other Emory alumni to join the Emory Challengers in sustaining, through generous annual giving, the on-going educational programs of Emory University.
