SYNOPSIS OF ACTS

ACT II.—Street in front of Palace.

ACT III.—Room in Palace. Esther is chosen Queen. Plot against the Jews. Esther decided to plead for her people.

Channucah Hymn

Rock of Ages, let our song
Praise Thy Saving Power;
Thou amidst the raging foes,
Wast our shelt'ring tower.
Furious they assailed us
But Thine arm availed us,
And Thy word
Broke their sword
When our own strength failed us.

II

Kindling new the Holy Lamps,
Priests approved in suffering
Purified the nation's shrine,
Brought to God their offering
And His courts surrounding
Hear in joy abounding
Happy throngs
Singing songs
With a mighty sounding.

The Congregation and Ladies' Auxiliary of Beth Israel,
Washington & Clarke Sts, take great pleasure in extending a cordial invitation to you, your family and friends to the Channucah Festival and Entertainment, which will take place on Sunday, December 25, 1910, at 8 p.m. sharp.

Prof. M. Banner, the noted Violinist, and other Professional talents have been secured. The newly organized Choir of Pryor St. Temple, under the direction of Rabbi Kleinfeid will participate in the program.

"QUEEN ESTHER" WILL BE PRESENTED AT CABLE

Play by Rabbi Kleinfield Will Be Given by Beth-Israel Congregation Tuesday

"Queen Esther," Rabbi Kleinfield's musical play in four acts, will be presented at the Cable Hall Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock by the Congregation Beth Israel Temple for the benefit of the Beth Israel Temple. There are about 50 persons in the cast, and the scenery and stage sets are exquisite. There are 13 scenes in the first act. Following are the principal characters in "Queen Esther":

Queen Esther ........ Miss Sadie Goldstein
King Ahasuerus ........ David Edelman
Queen Machteh ........ Miss Dael Edelman
The Jester .......... Mr. Louis Perl
The Herald ........ Mr. Maurice Kuplan

The Congregation and Ladies Auxiliary of Beth Israel, Washington & Clarke Sts., take great pleasure in extending a cordial invitation to you, your family and friends to the Chanukah Festival and Entertainment, which will take place on Sunday, December 23, 1940, at 8 p.m., sharp.

Rabbi Kleinfield, the noted Violinist, and other Professional talents have been secured. The newly organized Choir of Sephardic Temple, under the direction of Rabbi Kleinfield, will participate in the program.
SCENE FROM "QUEEN ESTHER" AT CABLE HALL

The above is one of the scenes in "Queen Esther," Rabbi Kleinfield's play, which will be presented at Cable Hall, Tuesday evening. It is arranged by the congregation in the Beth-Israel church. There are 10 people in the cast. The play is being presented for the benefit of the Sunday school.
"QUEEN ESTHER" MAKES GREAT HIT AT CABLE

It Is Probable That the Play Will Be Reproduced at a Local Theater Next Week

Cable hall was filled to overflowing Tuesday night when "Queen Esther," a musical drama by Hassell Kleinfield, was produced by the congregation of Beth-Isreal for the benefit of the Sunday school.

The play was produced by a cast which has never been on the stage before, and a number of the actors displayed wonderful talent. Among the best was Miss Ezra Einstein, who played the part of the deposed Queen Vashti.

The role of Esther, the Jewess who followed Vashti as queen, was taken by Miss Sadie Goldstein, who was enthusiastic and spirited. Her singing and acting were both excellent.

Strong interpretations were made by Mr. David Coleman, as King Anothrus; Mr. Solomon B. Epstein, as Haman, the king's favorite; Mr. Charles Pearl, as Mordecai; Esther's uncle; Mr. Perry Rosensteln, as the king's pages; Mr. E. H. Kaplan, as Charshaf; Miss Ruth Zuck, as Zerora; Miss Esther Davis, as queen to Zerora; Miss Esther互联网, as a flower girl; Mr. S. S. Goldsmith, as the herald; Mr. Isaac Gershon, in solo; Al Nahum, in solo; Miss Jehanic Saul, Sophie Saul, Missy Silve, Esther Zuck and Evelyn Cohen, as maharova.

Several hundred people who had purchased tickets were unable to see the performance, as the hall was filled to its capacity. It is likely that the play will be produced at a local theater next week in order that all may have an opportunity to witness it.
